

One Day seminar for Females on:

“Role of Aalimat (Women Religious Scholars) in Creating Peace in the Society” on 26th
January, 2022.

History reveals us that alike men, women’s role also remained successful, beneficial and important in harmonizing the temperament of the youths, building social cohesion, supporting credible internal intermediaries, educating people with religious guidance with alienated groups and providing effective socio-economic alternatives to violence for the purpose of creating peace in the society

The shariah Academy being a training institute for the legal practitioners has also engaged the male religious fraternity since couple of years and introduced them with the legal education and opened for them the ways to play an active role in their field. The female religious mainstream is alike an important unit of the society which has played an important role to uplift the moral of the society and still are performing their job on an individual and institutional basis.

To know what female religious fraternity contributed for creating the peace in the society and what and how next plans should be in the future, the shariah academy is going to organize a one- day work shop on “Role of Aalimat (Women Religious Scholars) in Creating Peace in the Society” on 26th January, 2022., in which prominent experts and scholars will speak on different important areas, in Allama Muhammad Iqbal auditorium, Faisal Masjid, International Islamic University, Islamabad.

The participants will include female faculty members, students and other graduates from different Madrassas of Rawalpindi and Islamabad.

Rs. 300/- is fee for participation and the registration will be made on the spot.

The Registered participants will be awarded with certificates.

For detail contact at 0334 40 21 183