

Scheme of Studies of MBA-Executive

Revised Scheme of Studies for MBA - Executive in the light of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) given by National Curriculum Review Committee (NCRC) and issued by HEC on March 28, 2019.

Introduction

An Executive MBA is a program, designed for the working executives. The methodology and focus of this program are however different from MBA program, to suit working professionals and entrepreneurs. Since it is a Master's program, a graduate degree and three years+ work experience are pre-requisites for enrollment in these programs. Executive MBA program at FMS is exclusively meant for working professionals, including persons engaged in own business. The core objective is to cater to professionals coming from diverse backgrounds who can share their professional experiences and develop business management capabilities through problem solving, team work and sharing their experiences with their colleagues. The class experience is punctuated with real world examples through cases and application of theoretical concepts. In addition the program also strives to inculcate Islamic values in its graduates, so that they can solve modern business problems equipped with state of the art knowledge and Islamic principles. Executive MBA program offered at FMS can be in the form of weekend or evening classes. International Islamic University is offering two years MBA executive program.

Vision

Developing inspiring professionals that can lead society to a prosperous future.

Mission

Committed to educating and developing leaders and builders of enterprises who create value for their stakeholders and society at large.

Program Objectives	Program Outcomes
Fostering an inclusive learning environment and curriculum for all students and deliver them an in-depth understanding of the dynamics of management practices and a deeper appreciation of the implications of a rapidly globalizing work environment.	Enrichment of knowledge through class discussions, teamwork, case discussions and application of concepts in the local and global context.
To develop an entrepreneurial mindset that is on the lookout for new ideas and continuous improvement)	The program will instill critical thinking, growth mindset, and digital literacy.
Inculcate Islamic values that guide working professionals in their work and personal lives.	Graduates will be able to communicate core Islamic values that improve their personality and help improve their professional work life.

Same scheme of studies of MBA 02- years program for MBA Executive program with the admission condition of 03- years of job experience along with other admission requirements of this program will be followed. The EMBA program may be offered as separate program during weekends or as an evening program independent of MBA 02-year Regular program (depending upon the response of the students).