

Dr. Huma Butt

Dr. Huma Butt is currently Lecturer of Sociology at the Department of Sociology, International Islamic University, Islamabad. She earned her PhD from the Institute of Sociology, University of Duisburg-Essen, Federal Republic of Germany. She holds twelve years of professional experience in academia and development sector both at national and international level. She has been teaching various courses like quantitative and qualitative research methods, sociological theories, gender studies, Sociology of religion, Introduction to demography, and Migration and urbanization. She has published research articles in peer-reviewed journals and some of her research articles are also under process. She can be reached at; huma.butt@iiu.edu.pk.

Selected Publications

1. Shah, T. H., & Butt, H. (2020). Experiences of Microcredit Beneficiaries: A Study of Rural Women in District Sheikhpura, Pakistan. Pakistan Journal of Social Research, 3(4), 281-290.
2. Shah, T. H., & Butt, H. (2011). Income Generating Activities through Microcredit and Women's Socio- economic Empowerment: A study of District Kasur, Pakistan. Academic Research International, 1(3), 218-226.
3. Shah, T. H., & Butt, H. (2011). Sleep Comes All the Way: A Study of Homeless People in Lahore, Pakistan. Academic Research International, 1(3), 207-217.