

Workshop on online resources in Lincoln Corner

LCI organized a three day (Oct. 20-22, 2008, three hours daily) workshop on “Online resources in Lincoln Corner” on the request of Department of Education, Female Campus, IIUI. Twenty six faculty members and students attended this program. On first day LC Coordinator briefed the participants about LC and AIRC resources, services, and programming along with introduction to Internet”. On second day a detail presentation was delivered on effective Internet Searching using the examples of US based websites. On the last day databases available in the LCI was explored keeping in view the resources on education. This was a very useful workshop for MS & Ph.D students. The participants appreciated the program.
